
Chillicothe FOP Lodge 247 endorses Darin LaHood

PEORIA — The Chillicothe Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 247 voted unanimously to endorse Darin LaHood for Peoria County state's attorney.

"Our officers believe it is time for a change in the state's attorney's office," said Chillicothe police Sgt. and FOP President Daniel Adcock.

"Darin LaHood's experience as an aggressive prosecutor and his keen understanding of Peoria County indicate that he can provide the new leadership that law enforcement sorely needs. With LaHood, we can ensure that criminals are off the streets and repeat offenders won't continue to threaten our public safety in Chillicothe."

LaHood, a Republican, is seeking the post that's currently held by 20-year incumbent Kevin Lyons, a Democrat.
